Spanish students make trip to land of manana

by Claudette Schock
 • A trip to Mexico can be a dream come true. Ask any of the girls who went to Mexico with Miss Wilma Jimerson, FSHS Spanish teacher, this summer. Though the entire trip was thrilling, every girl had her own idea of the highlight of the trip. "It was the bullfight," said Sharon Nelson, "with its color and excitement."
 Janey Griffith fell in love with Xochimilco (the floating garden), where we drifted in native boats, decorated with hundreds of flowers.

FRANCES McSHANE enjoyed the Indian Market at Toluco. "It was dirty but it was fascinating to see all the people with the hundreds of things they had to sell spread out all around them."
 Pueblo, tile center of Mexico, delighted Ann Buchanan. She was given a small vase which she had watched being made.
 Nancy Russell said, "I think the University City is the most interesting place. You can't imagine the modern splendor of a college which really is about the size of a city!"

 CLAUDETTE RAPP will always say there's no place like Mexico City itself, but she adds that the trip to San Juan Teotihuacan was one never to be forgotten. They are the ruins of an ancient culture standing not far from the modern skyscrapers of Mexico City.

When I think of our trip to Mexico, I will always think of the quaint city of Taxco, snuggling in the midst of towering mountains.

Rutledge and McCartney head re-organized Pan-Am Club

• Newly elected officers of the Pan-American Club are Patsy Rutledge, president; Carol McCartney, vice-president; and Betty Cox, secretary-treasurer.
 The club, sponsored by Miss Wilma Jimerson, has been increased in enrollment by 40 new members. Initiation will be held tonight at the home of Marilyn Marrs.

New teachers disclose hobbies

• For those of us who always seem to depict teachers as abnormal creatures with a text book in one hand and a test paper in the other, it may come as a surprise that these normal human beings have hobbies and special interests just as we have. This is especially true of FSHS new teachers this year.

James Colvard, seemingly one of the busiest teachers, finds pleasure is working with Boy Scouts and in sports, particularly basketball and baseball. Collecting stamps is another of his many hobbies.

A NATIVE OF ARKANSAS, Mr. Colvard lived in Kilgore, Texas, 15 years. He teaches advanced arithmetic and general science in S-1. Before teaching, he worked as a chemist.

"Art," said Mrs. Eloise Grober, law, geography and typing instructor, "is my favorite special interest." She is a member of the Fort Smith Art Association and has had several of her paintings exhibited in local art shows. Mrs. Grober prefers landscape painting.

After an absence of a year from FSHS, she returned this year and is teaching in room 110.

A TEACHER most of us know from Fort Smith Junior High, Mrs. Hazel Evitts has come to FSHS to teach American history in room 118. Her hobby is collecting blue plates. The first was given to her by her son in 1936. She now has 55.

"Of course, music plays a very important part in my life," Mrs. Evitts added.

Mrs. Arthur Cox, a part-time world history teacher in 204, finds all of her time taken up with her family, a husband, a son, and a daughter, Betty, a junior in FSHS. However, Mrs. Cox does say she enjoys reading and listening to symphony music.

"I LOVE WORKING in my flower garden during my spare time," Mrs. W. T. McRaney, another to come to us from FSJH, said. "I also spend much of my time in church work," she continued. Mrs. McRaney teaches English in 233.

A new teacher from California, Miss Mary Thompson, teaches physical education. In connection with her work, Miss Thompson participates in sports, having played on a volley ball team in Los Angeles. She also enjoys swimming and golf.

"I do not find Arkansas much different from California," she commented. "However, I have been impressed by the friendliness here."

A THIRD TEACHER to come to us from FSJH is Arthur Porter, mathematics instructor in S-2. "I don't have any hobbies because I really don't have time for them," Mr. Porter explained. He graduated from Arkansas State Teachers College in Conway.

A former student of FSHS,

Jack Whitsitt is teaching diversified occupations in 121. A family man, he spends much of his time with his wife and small son, enjoying picnicking, traveling, reading and watching television.

A graduate of the University of Arkansas, he will return there on week ends during the fall to work on his Master's Degree in education and administration. Before teaching, Mr. Whitsitt was a salesman for General Mills.

MRS. VIRGINIA JONES, world history instructor in HE-2, claims that her special interest is dogs. "I don't raise dogs, I just collect mongrels," she said. "Of my six dogs, two have pedigrees and the others are of dubious ancestry."

Mrs. Jones is also a graduate of FSHS.

Office girls named by school registrar

• Names of girls who will assist in the office this year have been announced by Mrs. Ferné Snow, registrar.

Pupil enjoys trip abroad

• Yes, fairy tales do come true these days.

Dreams of enchanting adventures in faraway countries came true to Jacqueline Varney, FSHS junior, last summer when she was one of three Girl Guards chosen to represent the Oklahoma Division of the Salvation Army at Camp Concordia near Oslo, Norway. The Girl Guards is an organization within the Salvation Army similar to Girl Scouts.

With beautiful fjords and forests about them, the Girl Guards landed in Norway August 22. "Norway is a very clean country," Jackie said, "and the people are friendly and very likable."

AT CAMP CONCORDIA there were about 1,000 girls from 16 different countries. The only three words all the girls could say and understand were "Concordia," "hello" and "hallelujah."

Camp Concordia is an international camp to bring all the Girl Guards and their leaders together to promote the work of the organization.

"ONE OF THE MOST interesting experiences," Jackie said, "was getting to see the H. K. H. Princess Astrid, First Lady of Norway."

Jackie landed back on the western hemisphere in Montreal, Canada, September 1, where her parents met her. "I never realized," she said, "how much America really meant to me until I was away from it."

Holt's classes elect new officers, names

• Presidents, secretaries and group names have been selected in each of Mrs. Evelyn Holt's speech and dramatics classes. Each of the four classes is divided into two groups.

First period: Shakespeare's Little Shavers—Marilyn Powell, president; Mary Beth Taylor, secretary. Shakespeare's Selected Entertaining Speakers—Ann Ellefson and Patsy Price.

Second period: The Stage Frights—Bill Needham and Carolyn Yandell. The Mask and Gravel—Jack Jones and Nancy Gail Arnold.

THIRD PERIOD: The Loudmouths—Shirley Windsor and Julie Orr. The Towncriers—Anna Ruth Murphy and Mary Nelle Henson.

Fourth period: The Tongue Twisters—Ann Patton and Sylvia Nelson. The Word Slingers—Ralph Burton and Doris Ann Baggett.

"Groups in first and second period dramatics classes will prepare and present one-act plays later in the year." Mrs. Holt said.
