

Yea, Grizzlies! Let's go, go, go!

Homecoming tilt pits Bruins against Hogs

• Tonight at 8 p. m. in Grizzly stadium, Coach Steed White's hard-charging Grizzlies play the homecoming host to a 3 win 3 loss band of Texarkana Razorbacks.

It is not only a big affair for Queen Carol and four senior footballers, Tom Cutting, Leon Goff, David Munford and Don DeCamp, who will play their last homecoming game for their Alma Mater, but it is a big factor in how the Bruins will finish in the Big 7 standings.

The Razorbacks have 11 returning lettermen, of which five were regulars last year—line-men Lott and Rivera with Studebaker, Landes and DuVal in the backfield.

BOTH TEAMS are evenly matched in members and reserve depth, with the only difference being the Razorbacks' line, which has a 10-pound per man edge over the Grizzly forward wall. In the backfield both have approximately the same speed and weight.

According to Coach White, the Grizzly starting line-up is intact with ends Gary Wisener and John King, tackles David Munford and Eddie Walker, guards Larry Reed and Leon Goff, and center Billy Gramlich. In the Bruin backfield are quarterback Tom Cutting, half-backs Joe Paul Alberty and Roger Lee, and either Darrell Williams or Don DeCamp, fullback.

PROCLAMATION

"East and West. Home is best." So wrote C. H. Spurgeon many years ago. And now it is homecoming again. Come home, all of you, come home. The welcome mat is out and the kindly smile and the warm handclasp is for each of our graduates. So come home.

For your enjoyment we play a football game in your honor. To make that pleasure even more real, we plan to win that game.

To that end we have designated this week as "BEAT TEXARKANA WEEK!"

Again to the old grads, WELCOME HOME!

Parade slated to be at 3:30

• The FSHS Grizzly band, dressed in full attire, will lead the 1954 homecoming parade down Garrison Avenue this afternoon at 3:30.

They will be followed by the queen's float, made especially for her by the Pep Squad.

Following will be the floats representing Allied Youth, Columbians, Junior Class, Classo-Romance Club, Senior Class, Sophomore Class, Em-Rose, Key Club, Athenians and the Future Tradesmen of Arkansas.

"The Pep Squad will not march this year as in the past," said Miss Nora Brown, sponsor.

Shakespeare Said It---

"Friends, Romans and countrymen lend us your support, we come to praise the GRIZZLIES and bury TEXARKANA!"

"The GRIZZLIES are an honorable team; so are they all, all honorable teams, but we have come to speak of TEXARKANA'S FUNERAL!"

"Come I to speak what I do know WE WILL BEAT TEXARKANA!"

Club committees say

And we quote!

• "As to the homecoming game, although Texarkana has us outweighed, with proper spirit the Grizzlies can beat them almost as badly as they trampled us last year!"

—Coach Steed White

Queen Carol and maids reign over gala day

• The band will be playing, the floats will be parading, the Pep Squad will be cheering and the boys will be scrimmaging—all for another terrific FSHS homecoming—the homecoming of '54!

Queen Carol Sue McKinney, wearing a white formal gown and a red velvet cape, will be presented the traditional bouquet of regal white chrysanthemums tied with red satin streamers as she is crowned Queen of Homecoming at 7:45 tonight by Chris D. Corbin, superintendent of schools, preceding the Grizzly-Razorback game.

The maids-in-waiting who will help Queen Carol reign over the gala events of the week are Susie Pryor and Sondra Brown, seniors; Linda Kay Westmoreland and Sallie Meek, juniors; and Charlotte Brown and Jackie Sanders, sophomores.

The queen and her maids will be present at a reception-party in the cafeteria after the game, sponsored by the student council. After the reception, the dance band is sponsoring a homecoming dance in the gym.

THIS IS THE second year the queen has been elected directly by the football boys. Also nominated by the boys were five girls from each class, two being elected by their respective classes.

Candidates for maids were Susie Pryor, Sondra Brown, Ann Patton, Linda Krone and Ancel Ruth Farmer, seniors; Linda Kay Westmoreland, Carol McCartney, Sallie Meek, Carolyn Sengel and Kay White, juniors; and Sondra Kreipke, Jackie Sanders, Nikki Ward, Ann Bell and Charlotte Brown, sophomores.

Danceable music is band's slogan in playing for school parties

"Danceable music with a special down beat"—that's the slogan of the Hepsters.

The Hepsters are a special school dance band, dating their origin back three years, when the student council asked Floyd Pitts, director, if a dance band could be organized to provide music for an all-school party. This was done, and soon the Hepsters, made up of regular band members, were practicing for their first public appearance.

Hepster members are as follows: Richard Carroll, Jimmy Pierce, Earl Shipley, Dickie Cox and Jimmy Williams, saxophone players; Dick Grant, Richard Wheatley, trumpeteers; Larry Philpott, George McLarty, trombone players; Stokely Hays, string bass; Jay Bob Lloyd, pianist; and Allen Hales, drummer.

Alternates are as follows: Myles Friedman and Spencer Hollis, saxophone; George Smith, trumpet; and Martha Burrow, pianist.

The Hepsters are to present an assembly in December.
